

ACCESS PROGRAMS AT THE ARMEL-LEFTWICH VISITOR CENTER

The Armel-Leftwich Visitor Center is committed to providing an interactive and educational experience for visitors of all ages and abilities.

For visitors who are deaf or hard of hearing:

The Visitor Center offers closed captions for the film "The Call to Serve," which is presented in a 100 seat theater.

An enhanced printed description of the U.S. Naval Academy is available upon request at the Information Desk to accompany the USNA brochure map.

For visitors who are blind or partially sighted:

An enhanced braille description of the U.S. Naval Academy is available upon request at the Information Desk.

For visitors with limited mobility:

Restrooms and theater in the Visitor Center are fully accessible. Visitors taking a guided walking tour will find most buildings accessible, by ramp or elevator, except for Bancroft Hall, the student dormitory. The Drydock Restaurant in Dahlgren Hall and the USNA Museum also are accessible.

Those taking a paid guided walking tour may borrow a wheelchair, free of charge, as long as a companion is available to push.
